SEVEN SORROWS of the BLESSED VIRGIN MARY
 September 15

OUR LADY had the comfort of Saint Joseph's presence when Simeon prophesied to her, "Thy own soul a sword shall pierce" (Luke 2:35). The Provider was with her also during the flight into Pagan Egypt, and when they lost the 12-year-old Jesus in Jerusalem. But it was after Joseph's death that Mary bore the most tremendous of her sorrows: the meeting on the way to Calvary, the standing at the foot of the Cross, the removal of her Son's body from the instrument of torture, the entombment. Mary's boundless compassion for the sufferings of Jesus made her the Queen of Martyrs; and in her unspeakable agony she became the Mother of Christ's Mystical Body.

QHRA News

The school is in need of substitute teachers, who would be used periodically throughout the year when one of the usual teachers is unable to make it in. No commitment to certain days or times is necessary - names would simply be added to a list and will be called when needed. Volunteers are always welcome, but there are also some payment options available. If you are interested please contact Fr. Haynos by phone at: (314) 436-4544 or email: principal@qhra.org.

Starkenburg Pilgrimage

The coordinators of the Starkenburg Pilgrimage would like a count of how many people from each chapel will be participating. If you are planning to participate please email the QHRA office, office@qhra.org, and let us know if you will be doing the three day or one day pilgrimage. For women or young ladies that plan to do the three-day, there will be a women's tent available to sleep in. It is first come first served, so if you would like to take advantage of this you will need to sign up now.
