

St. Francis of Caracciolo
Confessor
June 4

THREE THINGS made Francis of Caracciolo stand out from his wealthy Neapolitan friends: he was powerfully drawn to our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament, he fasted every Saturday in honor of the Virgin Mary, and he had a generous love for the poor. When he was seriously ill at the age of 22, he vowed that if he were cured he would devote himself to the service of God and his fellow men. He became a priest and in 1588 joined the order of Minor Clerks Regular. Francis instituted perpetual adoration as one of the works of his Order.

Corpus Christi

Institution of Corpus Christi

Pope Urban IV instituted the solemnity of Corpus Christi on the Thursday after Pentecost, by the papal bull Transiturus de hoc mundo (Aug. 11, 1264). The pontiff made a point of setting an example by celebrating the first solemnity in Orvieto, the town where he was then residing. Indeed, he ordered that the famous corporal with the traces of the Eucharistic miracle that had occurred in Bolsena the previous year, 1263, be kept in Orvieto Cathedral — where it still is today.

Bolsena Miracle

While a priest was consecrating the bread and the wine he was overcome by strong doubts about the Real Presence of the Body and Blood of Christ in the sacrament of the Eucharist. A few drops of blood began miraculously to ooze from the consecrated Host, thereby confirming what our faith professes

Procession of Corpus Christi

The feast of Corpus Christi is one of five occasions in the year on which a diocesan bishop is not to be away from his diocese unless for a grave and urgent reason. By tradition, Catholics take part in a procession through the streets of a neighborhood near their parish following mass and pray and sing. The Blessed Sacrament is placed in a monstrance and is held aloft by a member of the clergy during the procession. After the procession, parishioners return to the church where benediction takes place. Where the Solemnity of The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ is not a holy day of obligation, it is assigned to the Sunday after the Most Holy Trinity as its proper day.
